The Honorable Julius W. Hobson, Sr.
Member-at-large, D.C. City Council
District Building
14th & E Streets, N.W.
Washington, District of Columbia 20004

Dear Mr. Hobson:

In celebration of America's Bicentennial, Howard University's Center for Ethnic Music is proud to announce Earl "Fatha" Hines Day, on Wednesday, October 1, 1975. Mr. Hines, internationally celebrated pianist and jazz authority, has contributed greatly to American music, i.e., Jazz.

Jazz is an American creation. The elements of democratic life are clearly reflected in jazz. The opportunity for every man to be able to express a musical opinion--to create within an original framework--is provided by the jazz idiom. Jazz expresses in a very real way the freedom that is part of the American way of life. It is truly one of the few pure American art forms.

Mr. Hines will appear in concert on Wednesday evening, October 1, 1975 at 7:30 p.m., in Howard University's Cramton Auditorium. He will donate some of his private papers and other valuable memorabilia to the Center for Ethnic Music. In addition, he has graciously agreed to donate the proceeds of the concert to a scholarship fund for jazz students at Howard University.

We respectfully ask your support of this event.

Very truly yours,

Vada E. Butcher
